RULES FOR JUDGING ROSES

1. Judging is based on the comparison of the approach to perfection of the individual variety.
2. An exhibition rose should be in the most perfect phase of its beauty at the time of judging. Usually this is when the bloom is half to three parts open and has a well formed center. Buds do not qualify as blooms.
3. Judges will know whether a particular bloom is true to type and color, form and foliage, and will not discriminate between varieties because of personal prejudices.
4. American Rose Society rules for governing disqualification will be followed.
5. Teas, Hybrid Teas, Hybrid Perpetuals, Hybrid Tea Climbers, and Grandifloras when shown on specimen classes must be shown disbudded.
6. Side buds are permitted on Single and semi-double Hybrid Teas, Polyanthas, Floribundas, Grandifloras, Large Flowered Climbers, Ramblers, and all classes of Old Garden Roses unless otherwise specified.
7. A single rose has 5 – 12 petals; semi-double has 13 – 20; fully double rose has over 20 petals. Sprays are to have two or more blooms per stem.
